

Oncology Nursing Society PUGET SOUND CHAPTER

QUARTERLY

Volume 8 No. 3 SUMMER 1985

What's New In Home Care!

EDITOR'S NOTE: This issue of the Quarterly focuses on Community Health Cancer Nursing. Nurses from a variety of home care settings have contributed articles about the work they are doing. Patricia Mulhern, Intensive Technical & Transition Services Program Manager, is guest editor. The Fall issue of the Quarterly will be on Innovative Cancer Nursing Care--an update on the "new" and different approaches to care.

-Ryan Iwamoto, Editor.

PUGET SOUND CHAPTER OF THE ONCOLOGY NURSING SOCIETY QUARTERLY MEETING:

CELEBRATION!

A gathering to recognize our becoming a chapter of the Oncology Nursing Society.

Highlights of the ONS Congress in Houston to be featured.

September 20, 1985 Friday, 7-9 p.m.
East-West Conference Room
Fred Hutchinson Cancer Research Center
1124 Columbia Street, Seattle, Washington

For "Bed Without Breakfast" Program for out-of-towners, call: Janet Schwarz-Appelbaum: 524-1470.

TRENDS IN HEALTH CARE

